K. OF C.

Will Look After the Moral and Social Welfare of Our Soldier Boys.

Plan Adopted by the Supreme Board to Promote Great Work.

Activities Subject to Approval of Our Right Reverend Bishop.

NEXT WEEK SET FOR CAMPAIGN

It being the intention of the Supreme Board of Directors of the Knights of Columbus to adopt a plan by which all Catholics, regardless of membership in the order, may co-ordinate their efforts in the promotion of the work at the recreation camps throughout the country, the Louisville Knights will work in conjunction with the Catholic Conservation Council recently formed for this purpose. The Catholic Conservation Council is an outgrowth of the Federation of Catholic Societies. The objects and aims of the Conservation Council are conservation of the morals of the Catholic young men who may be quartered at the cantonment now being located near the city of Louisville and to devise and provide ways and means to encourage and assist the Catholic soldiers to broaden and enlarge the scope of its activities so as to embrace the furnishing of wholesome and bodily comforts that may appear germane and to co-operate fully with the duly constituted authorities. All of its activities will be under the supervision and subject to the approval of the Right Reverend Bishop.

The following officers have been chosen of the Conservation Council: General Chairman—P. H. Callahan. Vice Chairman—E. J. Cooney. Secretary—John J. Shelly. Treasurer—Jacob J. Hubbuck. An executive committee of nine members, six laymen and three priests, will be appointed. A morale committee, which shall meet and confer with a similar committee of any organization to take active part in any moral movement inaugurated for the purification of the city and its environs. Additional money will be raised for many needs which will arise that are not now foreseen. The money to be raised in Louisville will be practically all spent here. Teams will be pointed and captains at their head, and a regular organization formed which will canvass the city in the same way as it was canvassed for the sale of Liberty bonds, the Red Cross fund, the U. S. C. A. and similar movements.

The Catholic organizations and every Catholic person will see the need as patriots and as Catholics of assisting in this work. So the great Christian heart of the people of this country is aroused to the danger that confronts these boys if they are not taken to prevent these pernicious influences manifesting themselves.

AWFUL DEATH.

The hand of death came with appalling swiftness to Patrick Gallagher, for years a faithful conductor on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, in a train collision Monday night in East Nashville, Tenn. Two other trainmen were badly injured. Conductor Gallagher, left Louisville with his train early Monday morning, and was to make the return trip on Tuesday. Mrs. Sarah Mearns, a cousin, who lived with him on Bolling avenue, was notified by L. and N. officials of the death of Mr. Gallagher. Mrs. Sallie Hunt, a daughter, who also lived with her father at the Bolling avenue address, was visiting in Richmond. Besides Mrs. Hunt, Mr. Gallagher is survived by a son, Thomas Gallagher, and three other daughters, Mrs. Margaret Douthett, Mrs. Elizabeth Sexton and Mrs. Kate Helms. The remains were brought to his home and the funeral was held from St. George's church, attended by many of his fellow railroaders and old friends.

PRIEST WITH TROOPS.

The Rev. John J. Brady, born in St. Gabriel's parish in New York City, is the Catholic chaplain with the first contingent of American troops that landed in France. He was formerly with the U. S. S. Arkansas, but was transferred to the marines, and he accompanied the sea soldiers on their trip across. Father Brady was educated at Dunwoody and was ordained nine years ago. He was made chaplain in the navy in September, 1914.

THE DATE SET.

Premier Lloyd George announced in the House of Commons Friday afternoon that the Irish convention would meet July 25 to deal with preliminary business, including the appointment of a Chairman. Lloyd George said the Government had suggested that Henry E. Duke, Chief Secretary for Ireland, act as provisional or temporary Chairman. The Premier added he thought it obviously better that the choice of a Chairman should be with the convention.

The first sitting of the body will be held in Dublin, Lloyd George announced. The convention will be free to sit elsewhere if it so decides. The Government, said the Premier, hoped the arrangement proposed would not involve long absence of the Chief Secretary for Ireland from his duties. Nominations for the convention, the Premier stated, were not quite complete and until the Government had seen them all it was not in a position to make its fifteen nominations, although these had been provisionally determined on. As the general body of members was so near completion, however, he considered they were entitled to proceed.

The Premier said he was glad to acknowledge the admirable public spirit displayed in the offers of many public buildings to serve as the site of the convention, and he hoped soon to be in a position to make a definite announcement regarding this. The Government, the Premier declared, would do its utmost to assist the convention.

HOME LAWN FETE.

In our columns has appeared notice of a lawn fete to be given Tuesday evening, July 24, at Summer's Park for the benefit of the Visitation Home for Working Girls. The Visitation Home would be a credit to any denomination, and it is with just pride that Catholics claim it and point to it as their own. "By their fruits ye shall know them." What are the fruits of the Visitation Home? These are a few: It houses in moral safety and physical comfort the frequently unprotected business girls. Irrespective of creed, it serves abundantly and attractively three excellent meals a day. It has the "real home" atmosphere and the welfare of the boarders at heart. It frequently receives excellent positions for unemployed boarders. It renders available the sincere heart interest of the kind and good Sisters of Mercy in charge. The Visitation Home has demonstrated that with a little aid it can help itself, and the donor in contributing to its cause feels that he has been of real service to many—that his contribution has been well placed, that the good resulting will increase and multiply. There is a real pleasure in giving when the fruits of one's generosity are so obviously effective as actually shown by the Visitation Home. Facts are the most satisfactory thing in the world to deal with. Come down and take an inspection tour of the Visitation Home. It will prove its claims, and then we know you will not only attend the lawn fete, but will go in a willing and generous mood.

BROTHER RICHARD.

Rev. Brother Richard, of St. Xavier's College, who will celebrate his thirty-third birthday next month, spent his life since a mere youth in imparting the wholesome lessons of Christian education to the boys and young men of Louisville. The venerable brother is still active, hale and hearty and does not show his age. Brother Richard has seen the Xavierian Brothers in their time of trial and rejoices now to see them in full vigor. He has been sojourning in Bardonia under the haloed shadows of St. Joseph's church and college, surrounded by St. Xavier's community and many visiting brethren making their retreat.

VINCENIANS.

The various conferences of the St. Vincent de Paul Society will assemble at St. Peter's church, Seventeenth and Garfield, at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, for the annual observance of the feast of their patron saint. Ample arrangements have been made by Rev. Father Edmund Kaiser and St. Peter's Conference, and when all present approach the altar the sight will be inspiring. The general meeting will be held in the afternoon in the Knights of Columbus Hall, when new members will be received and works of the conferences reviewed. "Charity" will be the subject of the principal address, to be delivered by Judge Matt O'Doherty.

CATHOLICS IN MAJORITY.

Rev. Thomas S. Regan, recently appointed naval chaplain, reports that of the 1,300 men aboard the Minnesota, No. 61 per cent., are Catholics. The highest percentage reported in any one group previous to this was from the United States Naval Training Station at Port Royal, S. C., where Rev. Edward Duff reported 55 per cent. Catholic.

NOVEL WATCH OFFER.

On the last day of the Kentucky State Fair Attorney Horace S. Meldahl will give a guaranteed Green watch, lady's or gentleman's size, for the largest and best potato yield to him by the opening day of the fair. Potatoes should be sent to his office, 616 Inner-South-eastern building, where they will be submitted to the official committee. After the decision all will be placed on exhibition.

BECKHAM

Not Present at Hearing of Bankers' and Distillers Men's Protests.

Democracy Means Nothing to Haly-Beckham Machine Followers.

Louisville Herald Conveniently Forgets Infamous G. O. P. Primary.

HUGGINS EXPOSES BRUMLEVE

It was especially noticeable to Kentucky Democrats that our prohibitionist Senator Beckham was not present to hear the protests of Louisville bankers and distillers in Washington Wednesday and why are wondering what the Louisville delegation thought of his action. Senator Ollie James arranged the conference, which was attended by Senators Gore, Lodge, McCumber, Williams and Smith, and statements were made by Judge J. Johnston, Embury Swearingen and Judge Alex. P. Humphrey, of this city, and E. T. Franks, of Covington. The bankers told of the awful blow it would mean to many of our financial institutions if the drastic prohibition law was passed and the injury to our banks would also be injurious to so many other lines of business, as in crippling the resources of our financial institutions the blow would affect those who from time to time need to borrow money in the carrying on business deals. Louisville Democrats are wondering why Banker James B. Brown thinks of the attitude of his protégé, as Beckham and his candidate allies have always been given hearty support here by Mr. Brown. It also brings to mind Beckham's famous feat to achieve victory in 1914 when he said that he never could forget Louisville for the enormous majority given him here against one of its own townsmen, ex-Gov. Willson, and incidentally this majority saved our prohibition Senator from defeat.

Events of the present week show that the Haly-Beckham alliance regard Democracy as a secondary consideration and the Haly-Beckham followers will combine with Republicans, Prohibitionists or any other faction to achieve their end. As an instance, it will be remembered that Rodman Keenon, Clerk of the Court of Appeals and member of the State Election Board by virtue of his office, combined with the Republican, number last year to select the Election Commission and Gov. Stanley and other Democrats. Keenon of course is a Haly-Beckham follower. This performance will be repeated again this year, and yet some are disposed to criticize anyone paying them back in their own coin. The Republican Party, State with O'Rear, a Republican leader, preaching prohibition jointly, although the Democratic party was on record as being opposed to that measure. Right here in Louisville four years ago Percy Haly and the Haly-Beckham followers supported and assisted Axton, the Fusion candidate for Mayor, against Mayor Buschmeyer, the Democratic nominee. If a Stanley man or Stanley follower is selected in the coming primary on the Democratic ticket he can look for the same opposition from the same source.

Under the guise of Forward Leaguers and other non de plumes this faction is attempting to control the coming primary, centering attention on the Haly-Beckham candidate for the General Assembly and office of Sheriff in every district, with prohibition for their battle cry. They have selected candidates regardless of their services or qualifications in the Democratic party, and as an instance McNally, a former Secretary of Beckhams' campaign, is their choice here for Sheriff, a young man practically unknown to 90 per cent. of the Democratic voters. In the past we have had men like Henry Bell, Al Enler and our present Sheriff, who were known to the great masses and selected because of their popularity, but Mr. McNally's only qualifications seem to be that he is the Haly-Beckham choice for that office. His opponent, Senator Sam Robertson, is of the Bell-Emmer-Gronan type and is the choice of free and untrammeled Democracy.

Despite the claims of the Herald all is not joy and serene in the Republican ranks locally, the Chilton-Searcy machine being forced to circulate advertising matter with their state for the different contested offices. Another thorn in their side is the two colored brothers in the Tenth ward who want to go to the Legislature, and as this is a colored Republican district by known to the great masses and selected because of their popularity, but Mr. McNally's only qualifications seem to be that he is the Haly-Beckham choice for that office. His opponent, Senator Sam Robertson, is of the Bell-Emmer-Gronan type and is the choice of free and untrammeled Democracy.

hypocritical attitude dwells on the charges made against the local Democratic leaders and administration by the little coterie of disgruntled Brumleve speakers and affects to impress its readers that the sorehead sayings of the down-and-outers are published as a matter of news instead of as a first aid to the Chilton-Searcy Republic machine. Attorney Clem Higgins is doing the community a service in exposing the connection between the Brumleve crowd and day by day men who are real Democrats are deserting the knuckles' camp. If the Herald wants to discuss election wickedness it need not go back any farther than last year when the Chilton-Searcy machine robbed Dr. Ryans and Roscoe Conkling in a manner that would have put Jesse James or the KKK in the South end of the Eighth and Ninth wards the returns were 99 to 1 and similar figures and all of this done openly. Incidentally Joe Conkling, a Republican leader and worker of long years standing, was present to see greater slaughter when the story goes that Joe advised his younger brother to get out of the party which stood for such offenses. On this infamous primary the Herald is wisely silent.

It is noticeable at the different meetings that such attention is being paid by the voters to the respective claimants for County Commissioner, and Senator McNutt, Joe Nevin, Joe Ludwig, Squire Dorsey and Squire Muenninghoff have been putting in some telling lies by the way. Judge Johnston, Embury Swearingen and Judge Alex. P. Humphrey, of this city, and E. T. Franks, of Covington. The bankers told of the awful blow it would mean to many of our financial institutions if the drastic prohibition law was passed and the injury to our banks would also be injurious to so many other lines of business, as in crippling the resources of our financial institutions the blow would affect those who from time to time need to borrow money in the carrying on business deals. Louisville Democrats are wondering why Banker James B. Brown thinks of the attitude of his protégé, as Beckham and his candidate allies have always been given hearty support here by Mr. Brown. It also brings to mind Beckham's famous feat to achieve victory in 1914 when he said that he never could forget Louisville for the enormous majority given him here against one of its own townsmen, ex-Gov. Willson, and incidentally this majority saved our prohibition Senator from defeat.

RECENT DEATHS.

The last solemn rites over the remains of Edward L. Vines, aged fifty-eight, were held Saturday afternoon at St. Cecilia's church. He resided at 2108 High street and for some time before his death had been employed by the city. Left to mourn his loss are his wife and seven children.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary O'Neill, beloved wife of John H. O'Neill, 1721 Rowan street, took place Saturday morning from St. Patrick's church. Mrs. O'Neill was forty-four years old and was held in high esteem by all who knew her. Besides her husband she leaves twelve children.

There is much sorrow in St. Martin's parish over the death of Henry Heyens, 832 South Clay street, on Monday. He was fifty-six years old and had suffered a long illness. He was a devoted husband and father. His funeral services were held Thursday morning from St. Vincent de Paul's church.

On Monday the death of Constantine Boes, husband of Mrs. Margaret Boes, occurred at his home, 611 Caldwell street. He had been a resident of this city for many years and his death will be mourned by a host of friends. Besides his wife he leaves four sons, Fred, John, Henry and Arthur Boes, and two daughters, Mrs. William Hegenauer and Miss Charlotte Boes. The funeral was held Thursday morning from St. Vincent de Paul's church.

A useful and well-spent life closed with the passing Tuesday night of Mrs. Mary McNamee, widow of James McNamee, 404 West Chestnut street. Mrs. McNamee was fifty-five years old, and her death followed an attack of acute indigestion. Her funeral took place Thursday morning with requiem high mass at Holy Cross church, attended by a large gathering of mourning friends and relatives.

Mrs. Mary A. Marret, widow of Alex. Marret, entered into eternal rest Tuesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Dunaway, 660 South Twenty-sixth street. She was born in Ireland seventy-three years ago, but had spent most of her life in Louisville, where she was held in high esteem. She leaves three sons, Alex. L. Lawrence B. and Charles H. Marret, and a daughter, Mrs. Dunaway. Funeral services were held Thursday morning at St. Charles Borromeo church, Father Raffo being celebrant of the requiem mass.

REMEMBERED BIRTHPLACE.

The body of the late Cardinal Falconio, who as Apostolic Delegate was in Washington, was recently removed from the vault of his order, the Friars Minor in San Lorenzo, and taken to the little town of Pescocostanza for final interment. The Cardinal interred in his vault two sections, one to be opened and read immediately after his death, the other to be opened when his body was removed to his final resting place. When the second section of the will was opened it was found to consist of bequests of marriage dowries to a number of marriageable girls of Pescocostanza, the town in which he was born.

IRISH RIVERS DARK.

The rivers of the Emerald Isle have generally a dark color, owing to the fact that most of them at some point in their course flow through peat marshes or bogs, which impart a dark hue to the waters.

WATSON

What a Fellow Georgian Has to Say of His Notorious Neighbor.

Close Range View of Archbishop of Bigotry and Vicious Abuse.

Going Down Like a Drunkard Refusing to See Breakers Ahead.

BRINGS HIS FOLLOWERS MISER

Tom Watson, of wide known repute, has fallen upon evil days. Positing as a unique champion of Simon-pure Americanism by seeking to cast doubt and suspicion on the loyalty of Catholics, he has turned to a new zone of ineffect. His efforts seem to meet with scant appreciation if we are to take the verdict of the Dalton Citizen as a criterion.

After pointing out Watson's anti-draft agitation and roundly condemning the same, the newspaper in question in a recent editorial makes some very pertinent remarks, from which we quote but a few: "Recently he has been going down fast, like the drunkard who refuses to see the breakers ahead, opposing his excessive indulgence in the liquid that brings both disgrace and destruction. He has worn his Catholic 'issue' threadbare, and as the Macon Telegraph pointedly observes, the Frank 'issue' of the election of Hugh Dorsey as Governor. The editor of Watson is just about out of soap, and it is in the extremity of impending disaster to his unworthy bark and its small crew of misguided, often ignorant, followers that he goes forth to seek to enlist new followers by editing a paper in which he is at war with the greatest military power in the world."

Again we are told "Georgia has suffered much on account of Watson. . . . And what we have long contended is substantiated by the editorial which says in conclusion: 'What has he ever done for his deluded followers except to exploit them and bring them misery and woe by leading them to believe that all men are dishonest and vicious, and that hate and distrust and suspicion are the cardinal virtues.' Such is a close range verdict of the archbishop of bigotry, who seems to have lost all power of discretion from long practice in his vicious abuse of the reputation of his fellow citizens." C. B. of C. V.

PLANNING IRISH REPUBLIC.

Darrel Eglis announces that he and his friends are perfecting a plan to establish an Irish republic with a provisional council which will present a claim for recognition to the Peace Congress which shall bring the war to an end. At first glance it would appear as if Eglis and his supporters wanted to kill the convention and destroy home rule. As a matter of fact, however, Eglis' action is recognition of the fact that the demand for that committee's delegates for recognition at the hands of the Peace Congress, and that Russia will not oppose that demand. The one drawback to Darrel Eglis' plan is that the United States can not be counted on to support it, and that the committee's delegates for recognition at the hands of the Peace Congress, and that Russia will not oppose that demand. The one drawback to Darrel Eglis' plan is that the United States can not be counted on to support it, and that the committee's delegates for recognition at the hands of the Peace Congress, and that Russia will not oppose that demand.

When Archbishop Benavente Corretti sails shortly from an American port on an Italian liner for Rome to become Assistant Papal Secretary of State, the ship will fly the Papal flag under an arrangement by which Germany has promised immunity from submarine attack. Ambassador Riano, of Spain, obtained the promise. Archbishop Corretti until recently was Apostolic Delegate to New South Wales, and for ten years was auditor of the delegation at Washington.

CATHOLIC PATRIOTISM.

A splendid tribute to the patriotism of our Catholic citizens came from Washington in a speech delivered by Representative Norton. Said Mr. Norton: "Every enduring page of this nation's history, from Colonial and Revolutionary days down to the present hour, is emblazoned with the names and deeds of faithful members of the Catholic church who, true to the great church's teachings and inspirations, true to their God and their country, voluntarily and enthusiastically rendered the greatest sacrifices that mortal man can render in this world to the end that this nation, 'as a Government of the people, by the people and for the people,' might be firmly established and might long endure."

A prominent figure in the United States Senate, in speaking of the enthusiastic and whole-souled response of Catholics to the call of the Government in the present crisis, said that in his opinion the part played by Catholics in the present war would do more to forever obliterate prejudice than anything that has ever happened. This Senator said he personally knew more than one member of Congress who had been openly anti-Catholic that now had a change of heart, in the face of the tremendous Catholic response to defend the nation.

CATHOLIC KNIGHTS.

The Catholic Knights of Louisville will for the first time in many years forego their midsummer reunion and celebration, due to conditions arising from the war. This decision was reached at a well attended and interesting meeting held Friday night at St. John's Hall, the general sentiment being that Catholics should sacrifice everything for the benefit of the various movements under way for the betterment of conditions of those who have entered the service for their country. President Will Cushing occupied the chair and was pleased with the attendance. Chairman Buchheit reported the progress made toward consolidation of branches, and after an interesting discussion it was voted that every branch in the city should be visited. Encouraging reports were heard regarding the ladies' branch, which is on a good working basis and receiving new members. When branches reported Delegates McLean and Vernean aroused enthusiasm when they announced the great gains of Branch 642, which was soon to have an other reception. Gen. Michael Reichert and Treasurer Charles Falk made short talks that contained some timely suggestions.

RED CROSS NEWS.

Responding to the request of Mrs. S. Thurston Ballard, Chairman of the Military Relief Committee, more than a score of volunteer women workers are serving with the sewing unit of the Red Cross at headquarters of the Louisville Chapter. All supplies from the Louisville Chapter will go direct to the points where they will be used. They will not be repacked at any other station either in America or Europe. The next time you can see them will be welcomed at 619 South Fourth street at any time—whether they come to work half an hour, a day, a week or a month. Miss Harriet Anderson, formerly Superintendent of the Associated Charities of Louisville, has accepted the position of Chairman of the Louisville Chapter and arrives today to take up her duties on Monday.

Miss Edith A. Lovell has accepted the position of Secretary and Superintendent of the Fourth street headquarters. Miss Lovell was Secretary to William E. Morrow during the period of the activity of the Mayor's Committee on Unemployment in the early part of 1915. She will be in charge of the working force at the Fourth-street headquarters. On one day this week the Louisville Chapter took in twenty-nine new members—a number equal to the growth of the entire week preceding. Although no active campaign is being waged, the Louisville Chapter is nevertheless anxious to receive new members. The total membership now approximates 13,400. The membership fee is $1, and half of every dollar paid in is spent in Louisville for Red Cross supplies.

ORPHAN PICNIC.

St. Joseph's Orphan picnic, to be held next Wednesday at Phoenix Hill Park, should be well attended. The additional financial burden placed on the Orphan Society this year by building an addition to their now crowded home in Crescent Hill will tax all the society resources to meet this debt. They appeal to all those who love the cause of the orphan to exert themselves this year and give a united effort to realize more than in the past. There is no nobler act than to help the Orphan Society in making the home comfortable for the many little inmates. For weeks past committees have been busy and have arranged a splendid programme of amusements. Throughout the park will be scattered handsome booths and rest seats, and for all the inmates will be an abundance of refreshments. The ladies offer as a great attraction the dinner and supper which they say they will make the best ever served.

SAILS UNDER PAPAL FLAG.

When Archbishop Benavente Corretti sails shortly from an American port on an Italian liner for Rome to become Assistant Papal Secretary of State, the ship will fly the Papal flag under an arrangement by which Germany has promised immunity from submarine attack. Ambassador Riano, of Spain, obtained the promise. Archbishop Corretti until recently was Apostolic Delegate to New South Wales, and for ten years was auditor of the delegation at Washington.

CHAPLAINS APPROVED.

Secretary Daniels has approved the applications for examination of the following candidates for Catholic chaplaincies in the navy: Rev. George W. Foley, of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, of New York City; Rev. Paul Leduc, of St. Joseph's church, Cohoes, N. Y.; and Rev. Quintan F. Beckley, of the Dominican House of Studies, Washington. If the applicants pass successfully the physical test they will probably be assigned shortly to the navy.

IRELAND

Sir Horace Plunkett Believes Coming Convention Will Succeed.

Lawrence Ginnell Resigns Seat in Commons to Join Sinn Féiners.

National Convention to Assemble in Hall of Trinity College.

CATHOLIC BISHOPS WILL ATTEND

According to London press dispatches Sir Horace Plunkett, in a statement in reply to a question as to whether he was in agreement with the view that the election of Edward de Valera, a Sinn Féiner, as a member of Parliament for East Clare, killed the prospects of a convention in Ireland to consider home rule, said in part:

"The Republicans are not the only extremists. There are quite as many people who are seriously opposed to any change at all as favor complete separation. The convention's work will be to show that neither policy is practicable nor desirable and to find an acceptable compromise between them. It will be a difficult and protracted task, but there will be a substantial majority. The convention is determined to see it through, and I believe it will succeed."

Laurence Ginnell, Nationalist member of Parliament for the north division of Westmeath, has announced the resignation of his seat in Parliament and says he will join the Sinn Féiners. Sir Horace Plunkett, for many years has been an uncompromising critic of the Government in Parliament. Since the war he has been particularly strong in attacks on various policies of the Government. At one time he suggested that neutral divers examine the wreck of the steamer Lusitania for arms and ammunition, and later was rebuked by Chancellor McKenna for suggesting that the British were killing German prisoners. After the recent Irish rebellion he attacked the Government for executing the leaders of the movement, and several times afterward spoke on the subject of the rebellion. Several times he was called to order and finally was ejected from the House of Commons for an insult to the Prime Minister, Mr. Asquith. It was Ginnell who recorded as the only member of Parliament to vote in the negative on a resolution expressing Great Britain's appreciation of the entry of the United States into the war. From Dublin Ginnell sent the following telegram to the Prime Minister July 25 in House of Commons, according to official announcement. The Chief Secretary of Ireland, H. E. Duke, will preside until the convention chooses its own Chairman. It is expected that the proceedings will be private, but probably an official record will be made of them.

His Eminence Cardinal Logue, who presided at the annual meeting of the Archbishops and Bishops of Ireland at Maynooth College, read the following telegram to the Prime Minister July 25 in House of Commons, according to official announcement. The Chief Secretary of Ireland, H. E. Duke, will preside until the convention chooses its own Chairman. It is expected that the proceedings will be private, but probably an official record will be made of them.

The newspaper Kilkenny People was seized and suppressed Wednesday by the police and military authorities. This paper is an important local weekly conducted by Edward T. Keane, an active politician since the days of Parnell, and now Chairman of the local Sinn Féiners. The paper has had frequent difficulties with the censorship, but it is felt in Dublin by good judges that its seizure on the eve of the Parliamentary election to replace Patrick O'Brien, Nationalist, who died July 12, will assist the Sinn Féiners and prejudice any constitutional candidates. The Sinn Féiners will hold a meeting under Keane's Chairmanship to select a candidate, who now will probably be Keane himself.

INTO ETERNAL REST.

The Catholic community was deeply grieved Tuesday afternoon upon learning of the death of Sister Veronica, aged sixty-nine, who had spent more than fifty years in God's service. Sister Veronica had been for a long time at the Ursuline convent at Shelby and Chestnut streets, and was active until stricken with heart trouble. She was Miss Catherine Englemer and a native of Germany, but had been in this country only a short time before she entered the Ursuline Sisterhood. Her funeral was held Thursday morning in the convent chapel, attended by many Sisters and a number of the local clergy.

LONDON FOOD PRICES.

Food prices in a leading London hotel were read to the House on Friday by Representative Madden, of Illinois, to show that streaks and other things imported from America are selling there about one-third less than in the United States.

READ, STOP, THINK

The following extract is from a letter to the present Coroner which appeared in various papers:

"In my opinion there is no legal objection to your re-election."
(Signed) "M. M. LOGAN,
"Attorney General."

That is not the question. The question is:

CAN THE PRESENT CORONER LEGALLY HOLD TWO OFFICES AT THE SAME TIME—one under the Civil and one under the Federal Government, and draw $5,000 per year from one and $3,000 per year from the other?

Section 237, Kentucky Constitution, expressly prohibits any such act, and Section 3774, Kentucky Statutes, gives the penalty. VOTE for

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General
News Notes.

President John M. Riley, of Division 3, appointed his picnic committee last night.

Every member should enlist his friends in making the picnic the biggest success in years.

Milwaukee Hibernians are recruiting a company of Irish soldiers that will soon be ready for muster.

County President Hennessy hopes to realize enough out of the picnic to pay the national assessment.

Division 2 of South Omaha will have its annual reunion tomorrow, with an old fiddler's contest as a feature.

All are proud of the showing of Brother Walter Murphy and his A. O. H. team in the Twin City League.

The big initiation at South Omaha, for which preparation has been making for some time, takes place August 5.

The big reunion at Los Angeles takes place tomorrow. One of the special attractions will be the Ladies' burling team.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Washington have entered the work of assisting our soldiers during the period of their camp life.

The Ladies' Auxiliary have secured many nice prizes for the euchre and lotto on the afternoon and evening of the picnic.

The Mayo Men's Association of San Francisco will give 25 per cent. of the net receipts of their reunion to the Hibernians for the entertainment of the national convention next year.

With very impressive ceremony and many attending twenty candidates recently became members of the Ladies' Auxiliary at St. Paul. The work of the degree team received much praise.

Ellis Division of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Sacramento celebrated its anniversary with an enjoyable musical program and elegant repast. The prizes for the membership contest were awarded. Mrs. N. Gleason receiving a gold brooch set with diamonds.

HOLY CROSS LAWN PETE.

Holy Cross church, Thirty-second and Broadway, will give its annual chicken supper and lawn fete on Monday and Tuesday, July 23 and 24, on the church lawn. Many handsome prizes will be awarded at the euchre and lotto each afternoon, and each evening there will be many new and novel forms of entertainments introduced by the various committees in charge. Special attention will be given to the chicken supper, which will be served by the ladies for thirty-five cents. The proceeds of this affair will be used to reduce the debt on the new school building.

KANSAS CITY TODAY.

Our wandering Colonels will open up their Western series with Kansas City today and there will be a battle royal, as for the past ten days these two teams have been clinched in the first division. Leaving Kansas City the Louisville club will go to Milwaukee, Minneapolis and St. Paul in turn, playing Indianapolis on the way home, which games would have been the last abroad according to the original schedule drafted. With the lengthening of the schedule Louisville's chances for the pennant brightened and from present indications will again battle it out with Indianapolis. Kansas City is playing a weak holding game and third position will be the best they can do.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

TWIN CITY LEAGUE.

Pitcher Charles Henry, of the Hibernian team, absorbed all of the glory in the Twin City League last Sunday, pitching a no-hit game against Trinity Council, only thirty men facing him in the nine innings. This is the first no-hit game in the history of the Twin City and the A. O. H. club and its followers are all swelled up with pride over the achievement. In addition to his twirling Charley hammered out a home run and two singles, helping his teammates to pile up the big score of 20 to 0. The Imperials beat the leaderless Bertrands 13 to 3, while the Orioles trimmed the Champs in an exciting contest, the score being 7 to 6. Fillers staged a come-back in the league with a home run, triple and single, while "Jimmy" Hogan played a la Roxy Roach at short for the winners. The schedule tomorrow: Orioles vs. MacKins, K. of C. vs. Trinity (help!), Hibernians vs. Bertrands and Champs vs. Imperials. The standing to date:

	Won	Lost	Pct.
K. of C.	11	1	.917
MacKins	9	3	.750
Orioles	9	3	.750
Champions	6	6	.500
Imperials	6	6	.500
Hibernians	5	7	.416
Bertrands	2	10	.167
Trinity	0	12	.000

JOINS THE MARINES.

Joseph N. Higgins, of the Kentucky Irish American office, enlisted in the United States Marines and left Tuesday evening for the marine training camp at Parris Island, S. C. Joe is a fine "broth" of a boy and will uphold the traditions of the good old race from which he sprung. His brother, Frank J. Higgins, is Sergeant in Company A, First Kentucky Infantry.

ST. PATRICK'S.

Not only the parishioners of St. Patrick's church, but every one is cordially invited to attend the euchre and lotto party to be given Monday night in St. Patrick's Hall, Thirteenth and Market, under the auspices of the young ladies who graduated last June. They are Misses Mary Murphy, Estelle Dougherty, Pauline Arnold, Viola Riley, Beale Murphy, Catherine Glenn, Margaret McElliott, Agnes Nicholas, Ella Keane, Catherine Welsh, Cecelia Finnerty and Mary Teresa Bartley. They hope to meet all their friends and assure them a pleasant evening.

JOHN D. RYAN.

John D. Ryan, President of the Anaconda Copper Company, has been appointed Director General of military relief. Some of his duties will include the caring for the health and comfort of the American troops in France. He has the distinction of starting from a clerkship in a small store in the mining regions of Michigan and becoming President of the largest mining company in the world. His business interests are largely in Montana.

LEBANON.

The political race that is attracting most interest in Marion county is that for Jailer, for which W. T. Madden, of Lebanon, is a candidate. Mr. Madden held the office for several terms and made a record that assures his nomination and election. Like the Jailer of Jefferson county, he is popular with the masses, and people from Lebanon here this week feel confident he will receive a big majority.

FOLLOW THE COLORS.

So many members of the Holy Name Society in New Jersey have answered the call to the colors that it has been decided not to have the organization make its annual parade in October. In the Fourth New Jersey Infantry alone there are 706 Holy Name men.

CONVENTION POSTPONED.

The annual convention of the Catholic Hospital Association will not be held this year, nor will the Marquette Summer School for laboratory technicians be conducted this year. The reasons for this decision are the adverse conditions of the country and many expressions of opinion obtained from different parts of the country. During the coming year plans will be made for a great convention in 1918, when the summer courses at Marquette Medical School will be resumed. These events, however, again depend upon the conditions of the country and the opinions of those interested in the work.

TREAT BALL PLAYERS.

Division 4, the Limerick division of the A. O. H., will entertain the ball players of the Hibernian team of the Twin City League in Bertrand Hall next Monday evening and President Thomas Lynch appointed W. P. McDonogh, James J. Metigle, T. J. Langan, John H. Hennessy and John J. Barry to arrange a Dutch lunch for their guests. The spread is intended as a mark of appreciation of the showing made by Manager "Boots" Murphy and his boys in the Twin City.

NEXT WEEK'S BILL.

In the Fontaine Perry Park Theater bill for next week a novel Chinese offering, entitled "The Children of Confucius," will occupy the headline position. The act is beautifully staged and the costumes gorgeous. Eddie and Birdi Conrad who also prove diverting on the new bill, John Orren and Lillian Drew, a Louisville team, will present an original novelty, "A Barnyard Episode." Guilan and Newell and the Helen Leach Wallin trio will add comedy and sensationalism to the programme.

He is the originator of the humanizing idea in the Jefferson County Jail. He established the Foster School to enlighten and reform men and women. Result: The Jefferson County Jail of today has won national renown for its solution of the criminal problem in America. Clean as a pin—standard and at the head of the class—management sane and practical. Press and public say so; but ask anybody—in or out of jail. Vote for CHAS. C. FOSTER for Jailer, Democratic candidate for re-election.
